THE BIG TABERNACLE MEETING.

Interest in the big tabernacle meeting continues to increase. The forceful sermons by Evangelist Ham and the musical program arranged by Choirister Ramsay continues to attract large audiences. A large attendance heard another of Rev. Ham's sensational talks for "men only" last night, his subject being "Heroes and Cowards."

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henry Clay entertained Tuesday evening at their home on Pleasant Street with a handsome dinner party, at which Evangelist M. F. Ham and his associates, William Ramsay, G. C. Baumgartel and Robert Matthews, the local pastors and other friends of Mr. Clay, numbering in all about thirty, were the guests.

A gospel automobile train of thirty machines will swing around the circle in Bourbon county to-morrow, carrying the gospel message to every portion of the county. The gospel auto tour will be under the auspices of the churches of Paris: Episcopal, Rev. George H. Harris; Methodist, Rev. J. S. Sims; Christian, Rev. W. E. Ellis; Presbyterian, Dr. B. M. Shive, and Baptist, Rev. O. R. Mangum, which have united with Ham-Ramsay, evangelists, in the conduct of a great religious revival. Upon the invitation of these pastors the Ham-Ramsay party has begun a series of meetings in a tabernacle seating about 4,000. On the auto tour stops will be made at all towns of the county. Evangelist Ham will deliver short addresses, Mr. Ramsay will conduct the male quartette and sing and the auto tour band will play.

The train leaves Paris at 8 a. m. and returns at 5 p. m. At noon the party will be served lunch at Millersburg.

HOT CAMPAIGN COMING

Central Kentucky will see several thrilling battles at the polls next week when the voters of Bourbon, Clark, Mason, Shelby, Fayette and Anderson counties will go to the voting booths and settle the question of whether their community shall be wet or dry.

The important cities which will be affected by the result of the campaign now being waged are Lexington, Paris, Maysville, Winchester, and Lawrenceburg.

The local option election which will be held in Paris and Bourbon county to-morrow and on next Monday is bringing out one of the hottest campaigns ever known here. Both the wets and the dries are working night and day. The former are working quietly, having brought no speakers on the scene of action, but are distributing literature and trying to convert those who are still undecided as to how they should vote. The dry forces have had speaking by some of the most prominent lecturers has been going on at all the country churches and even in the school houses. The campaign in this county has been free from embittering personalities and mud-slinging and has been conducted on the merits of the case for both sides.

"THE MYSTERIOUS CLOCK."

Science and mystery are involved in the construction of an advertising novelty in the shape of "The Mysterious Clock," a unique and wonderful invention now on exhibition in the show windows at L. Oberdorfer's drug store and the window at the Fair Store.

The invention is a glass dial clock, which runs without works, yet keeps perfect time. The dial is about twenty inches square and has on its face the hours in Roman numerals, hour and minute hands, from one of which a small compass is suspended by a wire. What appears to be balance weights are attached to the hands.

There is an entire absence of electrical connections of any sort, magnets, air or mercury attachments, and the clock tells off the minutes and hours with accuracy and without any visible works, everything being in the open and visible to the eye.

The clocks were purchased by the Fair and Dr. Oberdorfer as an advertising medium, and are attracting a great deal of attention. They are subject to the closest scrutiny, and no matter what your theory is in regard to what "makes the wheels go round," you will find that the clock keeps on going and the mystery remains unsolved.

JUDGE STITT'S SPEECH.

Judge Harmon Stitt addressed an audience at the court house Monday night that not only filled the big Circuit Court room, but caused it to overflow, and several hundred were unable to obtain admission. Judge Stitt delivered an address in the interest of the local option campaign given in his characteristic style. Owing to the fact that the News went to press before the conclusion of the Judge's address we were unable to give proper notice. Those who were present were highly entertained, as the Judge's well-known reputation as a public speaker was ample guarantee that there would be something doing all the time. Judge Stitt addressed the colored voters of Millersburg Wednesday evening, and tonight will speak to the voters at North Middletown.

TEACHING AT MILLERSBURG. In the absence of Miss Drusie Elliott Miss Mabel Robbins, County School Superintendent, has been teaching her school at Millersburg for the past two days. She has been assisted by Prof. R. H. Elliott, former instructor at Transylvania University, Lexington.

DAN PEED TALKS TOBACCO.

Mr. Dan W. Peed, the well-known tobacco dealer and buyer, of this city, who has been making a tour of the Burley tobacco belt in Kentucky, after making a careful investigation declares that the Burley crop this year will be fully equal to that of the past year, the counties which have unusually large crops offsetting those where the tobacco was of the drouth. He said:

"Bourbon, Fayette, Clark, Montgomery, Woodford, Scott and parts of Nicholas, Harrison and Jessamine have produced the largest crop of tobacco ever grown. Bourbon county has its banner crop, a crop that will weigh out more than 10,000,000 pounds."

"The increase in those counties will meet the loss in Bath, Robertson, Pendleton, Bracken, Spencer, Anderson, and other districts caused by a decreased acreage and a poor stand, and make the total production equal to that of last year."

"The weather," Mr. Peed said "is ideal for cutting and housing the crop now, but the weather is always a most important factor in the tobacco business, and things could change rapidly in less than a week."

"Just now the country is face to face with a tight money market due to the European war. When the crop comes to market the tobacco crop this condition may change for the better, for it can't get any worse. The manufacturers will want the tobacco as their supply treasured from last year is due to run short before another crop can be grown. If the manufacturers encounter much difficulty in negotiating their paper for loans to move the crop, why then the farmer must share in the policy of carrying the crop. I mean by this that he must not run his entire crop on the market but send in a load at a time."

Mr. Peed was of the opinion that the Government would come to the aid of the tobacco growers, as it did in the case of the cotton and wheat growers, by placing at the disposal of local banks throughout the Burley district money with which to relieve the situation. "Such a policy would help the situation because if the farmer didn't care to place his tobacco on the market he could at least borrow the money, pledging his crop as collateral."

GOOD TOBACCO SEASON.

The weather could not have been better for the rutting and housing of tobacco than it has been for the last two weeks. With a few exceptions the tobacco has been large and heavy and some of it is said to be the biggest that was ever grown in this county. A good part of the crop has been housed and the farmers have worked hard to get it all in before the coming of the frosts. Some of the tobacco has been cut too green, but the growers say that they would rather have it green than to have it frosted. One prominent farmer, in speaking of the crop, said: "I have never known such a demand for barn room." The crop is a very good one to have had such a drouth at the setting out time but after the rains came the tobacco grew as if by magic.

Gardens are producing nicely now. Thirty housewives are canning tomatoes and many other foodstuffs are being canned for winter use, as everything promises to be high. Corn is still improving, and while it is not near anything like a full crop, will be an immense help. Tomatoes and beans are now so plentiful that there is scarcely any sale for them.

REWARD FOR THIEF.

Mr. Parsons, a railroad contractor, was robbed of $140 Wednesday by a negro named Bill Day, for whom the police are searching.

The negro was cooking for Mr. Parsons, and broke open a cabinet belonging to the contractor and robbed it of $140 in currency. The money consisted of one $100 Pennsylvania National Bank bill, and two $20 bills, one of them a bill issued by a Cincinnati National Bank.

The negro is described as being about 35 years old, weighs about 130 pounds, is very black, and has a long, lean face.

The police of all the neighboring towns have been notified to be on the lookout for the negro, but so far he has not been apprehended.

STREET WORK PROGRESSING.

The rains of Wednesday and yesterday caused a temporary cessation of the work being done to put Main street in a passable condition again. The new street, so far as finished, gives promise of becoming a most excellent thoroughfare. Test pieces are taken out of the street in several places in each square as the work progresses, and has been found to be in perfect condition. These pieces were cut out of the finished street several hours after completion, and show that the asphalt and the bituminous composition have been perfectly blended and that it will present a wearing surface equal to that of the best streets in the United States.

FIRST EUROPEAN SHIPMENT TO REACH PARIS.

A Paris firm has received six big cases of flower bulbs from Holland and have them on display in their show window. The bulbs were shipped on August 17, and are the first European goods to reach this city since the war commenced.

NEGRO DISMISSED ON CHARGE OF ILLEGAL REGISTRATION

A colored boy named Jim Bayless, who was arrested on special registration day on the charge of illegal registration, was arraigned yesterday before Judge McMillan. After hearing the evidence and the arguments pro and con, the Judge dismissed the case.

Attorneys John Williams and P. A. Thompson represented the negro and Attorney Wale H. Whitley prosecuted the case. County Attorney George Batterton gave it as his opinion that the negro had committed no wrong, so City Attorney Wade Whitley was engaged by the "drys" to prosecute the case.

The "drys" had the warrant sworn out for the negro, claiming that he had no right to register on the grounds that he was in jail on the previous registration days and had no right to register at the special day set aside on September 18 for that purpose.

The Court held that the law was as clear as it could possibly be in stating that the qualified voter had the right to register at the special registration last Friday.

The Court gave a summary of the reasons for allowing all qualified voters to register for the coming election and in conclusion said that the only question that should have been asked the voters who presented themselves for registration was whether he had been in the State, county and precinct the required length of time.

Chas. Clay, a "colored" man, was tried Wednesday on a lunacy charge and was dismissed. Clay proved his sanity by saying he tried to grab the money on the ground when the officers recently raided a crap game, but that "Smiley," another negro, beat him to it.

BOURBON-LEXINGTON FIRM

The Fayette Produce Company has been organized in Lexington with a capital stock of $10,000, for the purpose of handling eggs, all kinds of country produce, etc., and the slaughtering and handling of turkeys for the Eastern markets.

At a recent meeting of the stockholders the following officers were elected: J. W. Lynch, Hutchinson, president; John C. Wiggins, Hutchinson, vice-president; Thos. F. Lynch, Lexington, general manager; Jacob Speyer, Lexington, secretary-treasurer.

A large warehouse on North Limestone street, in Lexington, has been purchased and has been refitted and remodeled to suit the special needs of the business.

Messrs. Lynch and Wiggins are well-known Bourbon county men, and it would be hard to find two more popular young men in the county.

REAL ESTATE DEALS.

The real estate market has begun to be active again, and in the past few days several desirable pieces of residence property have changed ownership.

Dr. D. S. Henry sold to J. C. Fitzpatrick, of the L. & N., a one-story frame cottage on Kentucky Avenue, in Rosedale Addition, at a private price. Mr. Patrick will move to the property about the first of next month.

Mr. Erastus Bowles, of the L. & N., purchased of Dr. Henry a one-story frame cottage on Harmon Avenue, in Henry Addition, at a private figure.

Dr. Henry also sold to Claude Tobin, of this city, a house and lot on Kentucky Avenue, in the Rosedale Addition, at a private price. Mr. Tobin will occupy the property as son as given possession.

SUMMER AND WINTER.

Monday was one of the warmest September days on record, a maximum temperature of 92 degrees having been reached during the afternoon. Only once in 42 years was there higher temperature recorded on a September 21 in this city. This was in 1805, when the maximum temperature was 94 degrees. The second mark for the month was established on Sept. 6, 1809, when the mercury reached within one degree of the 100 mark.

On Wednesday the temperature dropped suddenly several degrees following a rain, and wraps again became comfortable articles of clothing.

SENATOR CAMDEN ILL.

A dispatch from Washington to the daily papers yesterday stated that U. S. Senator J. N. Camden, of Kentucky, was on the sick list. He has for more than a week been suffering from congestion, due to a cold, and his physicians finally ordered him to bed and put him under the care of a trained nurse. It is thought that he will recover in a few days.

"SOME SWEET DAY."

Many may come and many may go, but the building of the pavements ordered built by the city last spring seems to go on forever. Perhaps in the sweet bye and bye, when the wicked cease from troubling and the weary are at rest, an archangel will announce to the gratified people "The job is complete," but, alas, till then we will have to scramble along through mud and water and loose bricks until the end of all time.

Only the "Wets" vote Saturday. If you are "Dry" be sure and vote Monday.

GET THE HABIT!

IT WILL PAY!

Being unable to see all my friends and customers, I take this method of communication. As a direct result of the European conflict, nearly all the staple food stuffs have made sensational advances during the past month. Flour, Meat, Lard, Sugar, Coffee, etc., have all advanced and will probably go much higher.

The terms which the dealers now get from packers and jobbers are becoming more stringent, to carry customers for thirty days or longer and to allow for bad debts would make it necessary to tie up a great deal of capital in the business, and as this advancement in prices has also caused a stringency in the money market, it makes it impossible to do business on the old basis. Owing to said conditions I have decided to put our business on

EARLY WAR NEWS.

THOUSANDS GUARD THE KAISER.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The German Emperor has taken up his quarters in Luxembourg, according to a Paris dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. Thousands of troops are stationed around the Legation where he resides. To guard against possible raids by French aviators a squadron of aeroplanes are in constant readiness to beat off attacks.

ALLEGED GERMAN VANDALISM.

BORDEAUX, Sept. 22.—A dispatch from Rome says that, when informed of the destruction of the Cathedral of Rheims, Pope Benedict XV. said he "could not believe it possible in such a civilized epoch as the twentieth century to be plunged back to the time of Attila."

The Pontiff requested Cardinal Ferrata to request Cardinal Amette, Archbishop of Paris, for full particulars, as telegrams for Rheims are not accepted.

The magnificent set of ancient tapestries which hung in the Cathedral of Rheims was removed before the bombardment, by officials from the office of the Under Secretary of Fine Arts and is now in a place of safety.

A detailed account of the German bombardment of Rheims has become available here.

It relates that the cannonading of the French city lasted for a fortnight. The German are said to have used petroleum shells and the city was set afire in many places. Whole blocks of houses have been reduced to heaps of smoking ruins. The part of the population which was unable or unwilling to leave the city was without food for several days. The people took shelter in cellars. A certain number of them were injured, but little or no loss of life has been reported.

The French Foreign Office has forwarded to neutral governments a protest against the German bombardment of the Cathedral at Rheims, couched in the following terms:

"Without being able to invoke even the appearance of military necessity, and for the mere pleasure of destruction, German troops have subjected the Cathedral of Rheims to a systematic and furious bombardment. At this hour the famous Basilica is but a heap of ruins."

"It is the duty of the government of the republic to denounce this revolting act of vandalism which, in giving over to flames this sanctuary of history, deprives humanity of an incomparable portion of its historic patrimony."

GERMAN WEST WING THRUST BACK.

ON THE BATTLE FRONT, by way of Paris, Sept. 22.—The western wing of the German line has been thrust back about seven miles during the last forty-eight hours, as a sequel to continuous fighting night and day.

Both armies, despite superhuman fatigue, show the utmost determination not to yield an inch of ground without a terrible struggle, but the freshest troops at the disposal of the allies' commanders have gradually forced the Germans to recede.

MANY BRITISH IN MOURNING.

LONDON, Sept. 22.—The patience with which the British people await news from their army is as remarkable as it is unexpected.

The part the British officers are playing is illustrated by the bare testimony of the casualty lists. Seven hundred and ninety-seven officers are among the killed, wounded and missing, which is a percentage out of all proportions to the losses in the ranks. One hundred and thirty officers have been killed, 388 have been wounded and 279 are missing. Many of the missing probably must later be recorded as killed or wounded.

The Coldstream Guards Regiment holds the place of honor with thirty-one casualties among its officers' corps. The King's Royal Rifles and the Suffolk Regiment have each had twenty-five officers killed or wounded; the Gordon Highlanders, twenty-three; the Munster Fusiliers, twenty-one; Cameron Highlanders and Cheshire Regiment, each nineteen.

The field artillery has lost fifty-six and the medical corps fifty-two officers.

Listed by ranks, the names of Colonels and Lieutenant Colonels number 32, Majors 85 and Captains 246.

The homes of many of the best-known families and of half the peerage in the kingdom are in mourning.

ENGLISH BUY MATERIAL.

RICHMOND, Va., Sept. 22.—The British Government to-day placed an order here for 1,000 sets of artillery harness and 500 cavalry saddles, to be ready for delivery in six weeks. Similar orders have been placed, it is said, in Cincinnati. It is understood that cavalry mounts are being bought in Virginia.

GERMANS DENY PEACE RUMORS.

New York, Sept. 22.—The German Government denies that peace negotiations are going forward at Washington, according to a wireless message which Count von Bernstorff, German Ambassador to the United States, tonight said he had received from Berlin by way of Sayville, L. I. The message, which the Ambassador said could not be put down as an official statement coming from him, follows: "The news evidently originated from Paris and Antwerp that Field Marshall von Der Coltz issued a proclamation that Germany intended to evacuate Brussels and that they had offered separate peace to Belgium, is an invention."

"Likewise there is no truth in the rumor that peace negotiations are going on at Washington. All these inventions have been recently denied by the North German Review, the official organ of the German Government."

JAPS DESTROY FORTS, SAY RUSSIANS.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—Telegraphing from Petrograd, a correspondent of the Havas Agency, says: "A dispatch received here from Valdivostok declares that Japanese aeroplanes throwing bombs have destroyed two of the important forts at Tsing-Aau."

KING SLAYS TRAITOROUS CHAUFFEUR.

PARIS, Sept. 22.—The Progress du Nord today related a story of the King of the Belgians shooting his chauffeur while the latter traitorously attempted to drive him into the German lines.

King Albert was with his troops south of Antwerp. He ordered his chauffeur to drive ahead, and then, after a while, the King noticed that the driver had changed his direction.

His Majesty warned him, and when the chauffeur took no notice he ordered him to halt.

This having no effect, the King, convinced of the chauffeur's treachery, drew his revolver and shot him dead. He, himself, stopped the car and drove back to the Belgian lines.

In the man's clothing papers, were found showing that he had received a German offer of $250,000 for the King's capture.

ENGLAND'S FLEET LOCATED.

NEW YORK, Sept. 22.—Two hundred British warships lie in battle line off the German naval base of Helgo Land, so close that at times they appear to touch each other.

This is the story brought here today by Capt. Skelley, of the British oil tank steamer San Lorenzo, which reached New York to-day from London.

RHEUMATISM ARRESTED

Many people suffer the tortures of lame muscles and stiffened joints because of impurities in the blood, and each succeeding attack seems more acute until rheumatism has invaded the whole system.

To arrest rheumatism it is quite as important to improve your general health as to purify your blood, and the cod liver oil in Scott's Emulsion is nature's great blood-maker, while its medicinal nourishment strengthens the organs to expel the impurities and rebuild your strength.

Scott's Emulsion is helping thousands every day who could not find other relief. Refuse the alcoholic substitutes.

THEATRICAL.

Venice—the City of the Sea—famous the world over for its poetic and haunting beauty, constitutes one of the big features to be presented by Lyman H. Howe at the Paris Grand Opera House on Thursday, October 1, 1914. Throned on her hundred isles, it resembles no other city on earth, not merely because of the perpetual pageant of graceful gondolas gliding through its liquid avenues, but there is something so distinctive in its architecture that must be seen to be appreciated. Here are architectural jewels unsurpassed anywhere else even in Italy. At every turn there is a blending of the poetical and picturesque. The transcendent beauty of the city is rivalled only by the glory of its history—romantic and tragic. After viewing Venice by daylight, the scenes change to the hour of sunset, when the sun, like a cunning necromancer robes the city in beauty that is imperial and dazzling. Finally they change again to Venice by moonlight. The color transformations from the golden glow of sunset to the enchanting emerald of moonlight in this paradise of pleasure may well thrill heart and mind. The glide along these curving promenades of rippling water lined with palaces, massive columns, marble balconies and sculptured arches all under the spell of opalescent twilight, then under the shimmering rays of moonlight, is to the Bride of the Sea as a Queen of the Night robed in all her regal splendor. The softness and brilliance of it all is overpowering. As the shadows of twilight fall and the hush of night steals over the scene, the cares of life seem to vanish in the west with the God of Day. In the refulgent light the city seems like a beautiful mirage, enthroned between two seas—the ocean and the sky—now golden at sunset, then silvery by moonlight. And with the vista of the stately palaces and St. Marks in the distance paneled by the mystic light, and gondolas silently floating past in the foreground like barges of gold and silver, the wizardry of the picture becomes complete—a triumphphant symphony of earth, sea and architecture, crystallized in stone and glorified by the setting sun until veiled by matchless and magial moon light.

Ben Ali Theatre, Lexington.
—That joyous melange of musical comedy, pretty chorus girls, music of exceptional tune to a certain of stage favorites in the leading roles, Thos. W. Riley's "The Queen of the Movies," which so delighted capacity audiences for six months at the Globe Theatre in New York, and later in Boston and Chicago, will be attraction at the Ben Ali Theatre in Lexington, Monday and Tuesday Sept. 28th and 29th with a matinee Tuesday. Not in many seasons has a musical attraction been received with such favor as that which greeted Mr. Riley's production in New York. The whole thing is a joy and delight and the fun kept at high speed, every second. Such a chorus of loveliness is seldom seen. They sing like larks, dance with dream-like grace and lightness, and wear such stunning clothes that it makes the feminine members of the audience gasp with envy and cause the eye-balls of the male patrons to bulge with wonder and pleasure. "The Queen of the Movies" is essentially a musical comedy, a rollicking girl and music show of the most pretentious sort, filled with rhythmic dance numbers and having as its story the theme of the present day craze for the "Movies" and a subject that lends itself admirably to the travesty with which the production tells us, lovers of clean-cut comedy, laughter, catchy songs, captivatingly brilliant dances, pretty women, music which sets your pulse a-tinging and your feet a-tripping, will welcome the advent of this attraction, the company numbers nearly one hundred people and a gorgeous scenic production, and an augmented orchestra.

RESULTS THAT REMAIN

Are Appreciated by Paris People.

Thousands who suffer from backache and kidney complaint have tried one remedy after another, finding only temporary benefit. This is discouraging, but there is one kidney medicine that has earned a reputation for lasting results and there is plenty of proof of its merit right here in Paris.

Here is the testimony of one who used Doan's Kidney Pills years ago, and now makes her testimony even stronger.

Mrs. J. T. Martin, Pleasant and Eleventh Sts., Paris, Ky., says: "I suffered quite severely with my back and in my kidneys. The trouble alarmed me and I tried many medicines. I did not get relief, however, until I procured Doan's Kidney Pills. They improved my condition in every way. All I have ever said praising Doan's Kidney Pills was entirely correct and I confirm my former statement of this remedy. They permanently cured me of my kidney trouble."

Price 50¢ at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Martin had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

"I advised the 'boys' when they enlisted for the Spanish war to take Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with them, and have received thanks for the advice given," writes J. H. Houghland, Eldon, Iowa. "No person, whether traveling or at home should be without this great remedy." For sale by all dealers.

HENRY WATTERSON ON PROHIBITION. Advertisement.

The love and affection which the people of Kentucky bestow upon Henry Watterson (Marse Henri) amounts almost to reverence. In the heart of every Kentuckian, whether he be in his native State, or sojourning in some foreign clime, Henry Watterson holds a place second only to that of his maker. His editorials in the Louisville Courier-Journal are more widely read, and have a greater effect on moulding public opinion than the writings of any other man before the public.

Therefore, the following extracts from his pen on the Prohibition question, will be read with more than ordinary interest. We ask every reader of The News to pursue it carefully:

The premise in which the Prohibition propaganda sets its hope is that the people of Kentucky are an ignorant and irrational people; that they are an intolerant, fanatical people; and that, under a few glittering and specious generalities about Progress, they may be induced to abandon the certain and fixed principles of enlightened, free and just government for the exploded dogmas of Puritanism and Paternalism, which, driven out of New England and discredited in the States South of us, would make a last stand here, having set out in quest of political adventure and corrupt advantage, with everything to gain and nothing to lose.

"Prohibitionism does not relate solely to drink. It means the prescriptive right of one class to regulate the habits, the morals and the manners of all other classes. It has nowhere been able to abolish drink or to reduce drunkenness. It has Maine Republican for fifty years, and the people, knowing it to be the source of unspeakable corruption, are preparing there to get rid of it, having elected a Democratic Governor. Before it could consign Alabama to the eternal grip of mongrel partyism and vandal politics the people threw it off after a trial which revealed its thorough viciousness. Within three short years it has made a hell on earth in Tennessee. "A fanatic in religion, a brigand in morals, elevating the spy-system to the first place as an arm of the law--debauching officials and adulterating, not expelling drink--substituting secret, mercenary indulgence for the open and honest taxation--with one hand extinguishing revenue whilst with the other hand promoting blackmail--the whole scheme of attempting to make men temperate by Act of Assembly has resulted in making them rotten by Act of Satan.

"The proof of this is mountain high. We need not go abroad to find it. Here at home it exists in the greatest abundance.

"Nothing is easier than to make a tar-baby of the Liquor Interest so-called, to invest this with every manner of evil and to declaim against it. The saloon has no party policies. Except as its business is treated with destruction it would never be heard of in public affairs. Menaced with confiscation, the men engaged in it, citizens and tax-payers with the rest of us, do as the butcher, the baker and candlestick maker would do if similar beset--organize to resist; to pull out if may be, to buy out if need be, other interests representing accumulations of capital, it is able to put considerable sums of money where money will do the most good, and the many State capitals being easily made the storm-centers of agitation for blackmail, opportunities for the employment of this money are created by designing politicians who go to these capitals for that express purpose. Thus it is that corruption breeds corruption.

"For years Kentucky has been denied all rational progress by inflamed political conditions, largely due to the congregation at Frankfort of the unclean birds of ex-remism, sometimes calling themselves Democrats and sometimes calling themselves Republicans. The Third House, of which we hear so much, is bi-partisan. It could not do business otherwise. With a Republican Legislature it would masquerade as a Republican, with a Democratic Legislature as a Democrat. It could not live at all except for money sent to Frankfort, often by leading men, corporation officials and church members, for corrupt purposes. Inevitably the Liquor Interests, constantly and exceptionally exposed, has been there, the ever-ready prey of the vultures of the Lobby.

"There are two ways of dealing with it. We can enact such laws as they have enacted in Tennessee, practically confiscating the distilleries and the breweries. Or, we can make such police regulation as will regulate, and stop an agitation which alternates venality and strife.

"These fanatic agitators do not want Prohibition outright. All they want is the Big Stick. Once in power, they can do what was done in Tennessee; that is, mongrelize the politics of Kentucky by precipitating an issue which, wherever the people have tried it, has brought forth evil fruitage, without abating the drink evil one iota or making one drunkard less in any community. Nothing is surer than that if they can by their dishonest scheme induce Kentucky to go their way, the people will have deliberately thrown away their birthright of freedom for a mess of garbage.

"Under the ministrations of religion and morals, and the better advisement and improved conditions of modern life, the cause of Temperance the world over has made and is making progress.

"Wherever public sentiment is backed by law in sufficient force to compel obedience to law, whatever the people ordain carries with it the requisite power. But where public sentiment is not behind the law--where laws are enacted in the teeth of public sentiment in any community--there the law will not be enforced, but will fade into contempt, and contempt for law in one thing makes for lawlessness in all things, degrading not elevating society.

"In such cases regulation, adequately policed, should be the demand of a patriotic, self-respecting people. Thoughtful men and women must know that the situation in cities and towns is wholly different from the situation existing in rural neighborhoods. The wish of isolated regions to enforce their own conditions, however pure, upon unwilling communities, is not only illogical, but has invariably proved futile and hurtful. Even in morals there is such a thing as letting well enough alone, and Kentucky to-day occupies a position of which it may be truly said she might go farther to fare worse.

"In short and in fine, the whole purpose of the agitators in precipitating this issue upon the people of Kentucky is to keep an agitation alive out of which they themselves, having gotten much already, have everything to get, the people everything to lose; gambling upon the sacred feelings of good citizens in the interest of that which is un-Christian and immoral; seeking to foment the passion of the gullible and excitable in public, in private, to bully and blackmail the objects at once of its creation and attack.

"Some of their leaders--maybe some of their newspapers--are honest. All are, or affect to be, hysterical. They foam at the mouth and scream at the wind and beat the air with their hands and arms like the fakirs of whom we read in books of Oriental travel. They can never prevail unless Kentucky and Kentuckians have gone mad. It would seem that no sane man--surely no sober, sensible Kentuckian--can read them, can see them, without exclaiming, 'from envy, hatred and malice and all uncharitableness, good Lord deliver us!'"

(ADVERTISEMENT.)

Yesterday 2,000 representatives of the Anti-Saloon League and the Woman's Christian Temperance Union marched to the capitol in Washington to demand National Prohibition by an amendment to the constitution of the United States.

To-morrow it is likely that the Anti-Tobacco League that is clamoring for a constitutional amendment to prohibit smoking, or the Anti-Profanity League that insists on a constitutional amendment to prevent swearing, or a Eugenics Society that advocates a constitutional amendment to stop the habit of imperfect babies.

Eventually there will be no need of laws or courts, or churches, or schools, or preachers, or charity organizations. Everybody will have been made wise, and good, and pure, and industrious, and healthy, and prosperous by amendments to the constitution.--New York World.

THE TRUTH ABOUT THE LICENSE TAX.

(Advertisement.)

Paris, Ky., Sept. 17, 1914
Hon. C. A. McMillan, Judge Bourbon County Court, Paris, Ky.

Dear Sir:

Will you please advise this committee how much, if any, revenue Bourbon County derives from the saloons doing business in Paris?

Respectfully,

BOURBON COUNTY LOCAL OPTION LEAGUE,

By C. O. Hinton, Chairman.

Paris, Ky., September 18, 1914.

Mr. C. O. Hinton Chairman, Paris, Ky.

Dear Sir:

None of the license money is paid DIRECTLY to the county.

This is a State tax and is paid by the County Clerk to the State Auditor and is USED FOR STATE PURPOSES.

Yours, Etc.,

C. A. McMILLAN.

And yet in their literature the liquor advocates have insisted that the county gets $3,300.00 out of the saloons and the farmers would have to make this up if the saloons are voted out.

The county does not get one cent of the saloon license and the taxes will not be affected at all if the county goes dry.

Another similar communication was sent to County Clerk Pearce Paton, who replied in similar manner.

The county does not get one cent of the saloon license, and the taxes will not be affected at all if the county goes dry.

The above quotation is on a par with almost every statement made by self constituted dry leaders since the opening of the campaign.

Judge McMillan says that none of the saloons license money is paid DIRECTLY to the county, but is paid to the State and IS USED FOR STATE PURPOSES. What are State purposes? Any school child will answer that by saying the expenses incurred by the State. The salaries of officials, the employment of teachers in the county schools, the building and upkeep of public roads, the administration of justice, etc. Consequently every dollar that is paid into the State treasury from the various counties of the State, finds its way back to those counties in payment of its legal and legitimate expenses.

The amount of revenue derived from the manufacture and sale of liquor is an enormous sum, and contributes to a large extent toward paying the county expenses.

Vote, if you will to deprive yourself of the benefits of this revenue, and you most certainly see that you are voting to cut down, not only the ratio which your own county receives, but also that which goes toward the upkeep of the pauper counties of the State.

With the sudden cutting off of this immense revenue, how is the deficit to be supplied? One answer, and only one, can be intelligently given. Other things must be taxed, or those which are now already heavily taxed will be increased.

One thing is absolutely certain, Mr. Farmer; and that is that a certain amount of revenue must be raised each year to pay for your roads, and your school teachers, and your officials, and for the administration of justice. Do you want to increase the already heavy burden that you are now carrying?

"THE CASE AGAINST THE SALOON."

(Advertisement.)

The people of Bourbon have within the past few weeks heard many arguments pro and con, on the above subject, from pulpit orators, whose sincerity it is hard to assume that it is really comforting to read an expression from the pen of one whom we know has no motive, save a real interest in the welfare of his fellow man.

We quote a few extracts from an article written by Dean Baker P. Lee, now of Los Angeles, California, but formerly pastor of Christ Church Cathedral, Lexington. No man ever lived in Lexington who was more dearly beloved and respected than Dean Lee. He was truly "a man of the people," and he was honored and respected by every one who knew him, irrespective of their religious belief. His views upon the prohibition question must of necessity be read with more interest than that of the ordinary writer. Dean Lee in part says:

"There is decidedly a moral side to this question, as there must be to all such matters, but there is no more reason to make this a religious issue than the policy of Canal Tolls or the Mexican situation, and when our friends of the Prohibition party assume a monopoly of virtue and attempt to corner the market on religious truth by misrepresenting the teaching of the Bible on this subject, it seems to me that some leader within the ranks of the organized and authorized Church, as Custodian of the Faith, should lift his voice in protest.

"If these men would teach and preach temperance as laid down in the Holy Book; and as exemplified by the life and teachings of the Great Christ, then they would have the undivided support of the Christian world, but neither the object sought nor the method of obtaining this result is in any way akin to the methods of temperance and self-control as taught by the Master.

"It seems to me that Jesus looked upon the wine industry as a matter of course, and that the good God has ever intended that His children shall enjoy all of the innocent pleasures, appetites and desires of life by using and not abusing them. There is nothing wrong of itself; it is only when we make it wrong; and it is very clear to my mind that when the Prohibitionists try to add to the ten Commandments, they are not only trying to force a burden upon the shoulders of humanity, repugnant to all liberty, insolent in its claim, and offensive in its motive, but that they are so foolish and vain as to try to add to God's perfect plan, and thereby invite upon themselves the curse mentioned in the Eighteenth Verse of the Twentieth Chapter of Revelations. The claim made by some ignorant persons that the wine Jesus made at Cana, and referred to and doubtless used on many other occasions, was unfermented grape juice is, of course, too silly for serious thought.

"The subtle and malicious doctrine of Prohibition has so wormed itself into some 'Churches' of America that they will ostracize and degrade any one who dares to produce or sell the 'vile stuff,' but snugly smile and acquiesce in the personal privilege of perhaps fifty per cent. of their members who buy and use it. 'Woe unto you, scribes, Pharisees and hypocrites.' Why will not these fanatics learn that it is not so much what goes into the mouth that does harm, but that which proceeds from the mouth, in words born of thoughts in a narrow and bigoted heart?

"In a recent campaign in a city near by I heard from the lips of the so-called leaders of the movement there words that were so bitter, so libelous, so blasphemous, and so false, that I had honestly rather be some of the barkeepers I know, and judged before God's throne, than be these men.

"There is more physical suffering caused by overeating than by overdrinking, and each of these excesses can only be controlled by personal knowledge of the fact, and individual determination to be temperate in all things. This is the only satisfactory solution of the problem. It is economic and personal, and that is why the world is daily growing more temperate, in spite of Prohibition and its leaders, rather than because of it. If some of our reformers would only begin at home and leave God's world to be run by God's laws, then humanity would be glad indeed.

"Self-righteous people are distasteful to us to-day as were their ancestors in the time of Jesus, and nothing seems to make them feel quite so virtuous as demanding that other people conform to the same narrow rules which they have prescribed for themselves.

"Therefore, I urge the poor man to stand for his rights and privileges as an American citizen. I plead for real temperance, for fair play to all men, for less hypocrisy and more sincerity of purpose--not Prohibition, but a better understanding of our fellow man, and an earnest desire to give him his Christian and American rights to liberty."

To the Christian Voter.

Do not be deceived. God has given you a mind with which to think and a heart with which to feel. Use both.

STUDY the question on which we are to vote next Monday. NOT Prohibition. NOT Temperance. NOT Tobacco. NOT anything but THE SALOON. Do you stand for the saloon? Do you SYMPATHIZE with its mission? It is established to sell liquor AS A BUSINESS PROPOSITION. It MUST have customers. It MUST continue to secure NEW customers. It MUST GET these from our boys. Have you a boy whom you are willing to contribute? If not, it is monstrous in you to establish the saloon that it may catch MY boy! Have you a daughter to contribute as a drunkard's wife, for the saloon makes drunkards as naturally and as essentially as the seed makes a harvest? If not, it is monstrous in you to vote the saloon in to make a drunkard for MY daughter's husband!

Are you not astounded, Mr. Christian Voter, at the actual blasphemy with which the saloon advocate is attempting to use your Bible as favoring the establishment of the saloon, and even the dastardly attempt to put Jesus Christ, your Blessed Savior, on the side of this accursed institution? Wonder of wonders! What are we coming to? Are you with them in this attempt?

God delights in this DIVISION. He is constantly calling upon His people to make division between themselves and the hosts of Satan. "Come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord." And at the last great day--the Judgment Day--He will call for the last and final great division.

On next Monday He has called for another division to be made. God is on one side or the other of this question. Honest, before God, Mr. Christian Voter, on which side is He? On the side of the SALOON, or on the side of a clean, dry town? WHICH? ARE YOU going to vote on the side on which you THINK God is? Where do you go for your interpretation of Scripture any way? To the SALOON MAN, or to God's Minister or your own understanding? To God and the Bible this question has been referred by the saloon party. To God and the Bible we go with exceeding great joy. Be honest, in your interpretation. Is Jesus for the saloon or is He against it? It is not Prohibition. It is not even Temperance. It is the SALOON!

The line is drawn. On one side are God's hosts. On the other, is the devil's camp.

On which side are you, Mr. Christian Voter?

Move Acids, Gases and Clogged Waste From Liver and Bowels.

Get a 10-cent box now. FARMER'S WIFE TOO ILL TO WORK

A Weak, Nervous Sufferer Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Kasota, Minn.—"I am glad to say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done more for me than anything else, and I had the best physician here. I was so weak and nervous that I could not do my work and suffered with pains low down in my right side for a year or more. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and now I feel like a different person. I believe there is nothing like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound for weak women and young girls, and I would be glad if I could influence anyone to try the medicine, for I know it will do all and much more than it is claimed to do."—Mrs. CLARA FRANKS, R. F. D. No. 1, Maplecrest Farm, Kasota, Minn.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Kentucky Man Tells How Mayr Stomach Remedy Restored Wife

Mrs. W. H. Clarke is Relieved After Years of Digestive Disorders.

Mrs. W. H. Clarke, of Central City, Ky., for many years suffered from disorders of the stomach. She tried many treatments with little encouragement.

Mr. Clarke induced her to try Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy. She got results right away. The he wrote:

"The medicine has done my wife a world of good, and I feel that it will cure her. I intend to keep on until she is completely cured, as you have been doing her more good than any one has ever done her, and she has been suffering with her stomach for years. I am glad I was told of the remedy."

Letters like that are written by users of Mayr's Wonderful Stomach

Remedy in all parts of the country. It proves its merit with the first dose—no long treatment.

Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy clears the digestive tract of mucoid accretions and removes poisonous matter. It brings swift relief to sufferers from ailments of the stomach, liver and bowels. Many declare that it has saved them from dangerous operations and many are sure it has saved their lives.

Because of the remarkable success of this remedy there are many imitators, so be cautious. Be sure it's MAYR'S. Go to G. S. Varden & Son, drug store and ask about the wonderful results it has been accomplishing—or send to Geo. H. Mayr, Mfg. Chemist, 154-156 Whiting St., Chicago, Ill., for free book on stomach ailments and many grateful letters from people who have been restored. Any druggist can tell you its wonderful effects. (No. 3-F)

ADDITIONAL WAR NEWS.

STATUS OF THE WAR.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 22.—Another day has gone, and neither one side or the other, Germany nor the allies, lay claim to any decisive outcome in the battle of the Aisne, where the supreme conflict of the war, up to the present time, has long been raging.

The engagement, taken as a whole, along its entire line, seems to be partaking of the nature of a siege. Both sides continue to hold a majority of their strongly entrenched positions. The German lines, for one hundred miles, are described as virtually a continuation of forts and heavy entrenchments. The artillery fire exchanges go on day and night, and under their cover are sorties of infantry. Counter attack follows attack and occasionally one side or the other gains ground. It would appear to-day that nothing but a successful flanking movement could have any serious effect on either army. But neither front has been broken, and neither side has been outflanked.

Rheims appears to be the center of the most persistent fighting. It is between the lines of battle and the city has suffered heavily. The Germans are described as most anxious to recapture this position.

The French official announcement issued at Paris this afternoon avers that incessant German attacks delivered yesterday, September 21, have been unsuccessful, and that the Germans have been compelled to retire at more than one point. The French took many German prisoners.

The latest official communication from Berlin issued Monday night says the Germans have captured the hill positions at Caronne and occupy the village of Betheny, three miles outside of Rheims to the north. This announcement describes the Germans also as attacking the strong forts south of Verdun.

The military expert of the London Times gives position to the French forces on the left which, if correct, shows a remarkable advance along the flank of the German right wing, under command of Gen. Von Kluck.

HOME TELEPHONE NOTES.

Representatives of the Cumberland Telephone Company have been engaged in Paris circulating a petition among its telephone subscribers in which it asks to be allowed to increase its telephone rates on business and residence telephones in Paris.

Representatives of the Company claim to be holding out the inducement to subscribers that better service will be given them if the rates are increased, as it will enable the Company to install a new "central energy system" in Paris.

According to a statement made by an official of the Company no effort will be made to have one telephone system in Paris, as the U. S. Government will not permit the Cumberland Company to absorb a competing line. The merchants in Paris, or a considerable proportion of them, at least, are of the opinion that the Cumberland Company is charging full high for its service in Paris, and that it should be required to install up-to-date appliances for the subscribers and give good service at the present rate.

The Home Telephone Company in Paris is giving satisfactory service to its subscribers at a less rate per phone than is charged by the Cumberland Company, and the Home Company already has in operation in Paris the "central energy system."

It might be well to recall conditions as they were and as they are at present in Carlisle and Nicholas County, that Parisians may be fully informed on telephone conditions in other counties.

A few years ago the Cumberland Telephone Company had all of the telephone business in Carlisle and Nicholas County. The charges were $2.75 per month for the business phone and $1.65 for the residence phones.

The Home Telephone Company entered the field and equipped an up-to-date "central energy system" in Carlisle at a reduced rate per phone, and to-day, it is said, the Home Telephone has in excess of 700 telephone subscribers in Carlisle and Nicholas County, while the Cumberland Telephone Company, has, it is alleged, about fifty-five subscribers.

If the Cumberland Telephone Company persists in its efforts to increase the telephone rates in Paris, will it have an experience that will be as disastrous as its venture in Carlisle and Nicholas County? (19Sept-14)

Splendid Medicine Stomach Trouble

I Suffered for Several Years Peruna Restored My Health

Mrs. Elizabeth Reuther, No. 503 Twelfth St., N. W., Washington, D. C., writes:

"I am pleased to endorse Peruna as a splendid medicine for catarrh and stomach trouble, from which I suffered for several years. I took it for several months and at the end of that time found my health was restored and have felt splendidly ever since. I now take it when I contract a cold and it soon rids the system of any catarrhal tendencies."

Over Ten Years Ago.

"I would not be without Peruna. Although it was over ten years ago that I first gave you my testimonial, I am of the same opinion as when I wrote it, and give you the privilege to use it as you see fit. I still use Peruna when I think it necessary. I am recommending it to my neighbors whenever a chance occurs."

Soldiers' Ammunition.

In the United States army the infantry goes to battle with 100 rounds of ammunition on him and 120 rounds per man in two bandoliers in wagons not far behind him. The German soldier carries 120 rounds, the French 120, the Austrian 120, the British soldier 100, the Russian 120, the Italian 162, the Japanese 150 and the Swiss 120. In battalion and company carts near at hand the ammunition, added to that carried by the men brings the supply of cartridges up to an average of about 300 per rifle.

Host's Bad Break.

High society has its crude personalities, if a story in one of the magazines is true. At a dinner given to the famous pianist, Liszt, his host, Count Ludolf, right in the middle of Liszt's most exquisite playing, "said in a loud voice, 'If anyone wishes to have a game of whist, there are tables in the other room.'" Liszt, says the narrator, stopped short, but as no one moved he consented amiably to remain at the piano. The amount of wine that had been consumed by Liszt's host on this occasion is not stated.

The Hypocrite.

The divine punishment of hypocrisy is fatigue. Those, in Shakespeare's fine simile, whose hearts are all as false as stairs of sand, must really have much of that exhausted sensation that comes of walking through sand when it is loose and deep. The hypocrite is that unluckiest of actors who is never out of a job.—G. K. Chesterton.

Had Right to Remain Aloof.

"The Declaration of Independence states that all men are born free and equal, I believe." "Something of the sort." "Then why do you hold yourself so aloof?" "My dear man, I'm descended from one of its signers."

A Thing Woman is Spared.

One deep sorrow which no woman, at least none that we know personally, experiences is losing the pipe which she has smoked for four or five years almost without stopping.—Ohio State Journal.

Man's Hardest Duty.

A man's best desires are always the index and measure of his possibilities; and the most difficult duty that a man is capable of doing is the duty that above all he should do.—Charles H. Brent.

He Sold It.

THE PRUDENT MAN BEGAN EARLY TO BANK HIS MONEY—NOW HE ENJOYS IT.

A New York theatrical man with an income of $25,000 a year went to Wall Street with $20,000 and tripped it. His head was turned—in a few months theatres closed—income ceased and Wall Street had finished his spare change. The EXTRAVAGANCE his family had been used to soon drove him to the extremity of mortgaging property and sacrificing pet securities. Today he is BROKE.

Postcard Hint.

Save your picture postcards and when preparing them to send to hospitals and orphan asylums paste two together, back to back, thus concealing the address and message, and also giving the sick babies two pictures to look at instead of one.

The More Important Thing.

A big physician says it will soon be possible to control the sex of the child. Can't some doctor tell us the more important thing—how to control the actions of a child?—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

To Remedy a Leaking Pen.

If one is troubled with a leaky fountain pen the application of a little soap to the threads of the screw will work magic. If the pen is emptied, thoroughly cleaned, filled and the soap applied there will be no more trouble until the pen needs filling again.

His Surmise.

"I suppose you're your mama's darling," said a sentimental caller to young Richard. "I suppose she thinks you're a dear little saint." "No, I guess she thinks I'm a moving picture. She's always telling me I should be seen and not heard."

Up-to-Date Storekeeper.

Selling delicatessen a prosaic occupation, fit only for fat men of Teutonic extraction? Nonsense! Not while the business or art or profession contains men like the New York storekeeper who has put over his place a big sign reading "Culinary Art Specialties."

Uses of Kangaroos.

In Australia kangaroo farming is an important industry. The hides are valuable, and the tendons extremely fine; indeed, they are the best known to surgeons for sewing up wounds, and especially for holding broken bones together, being much finer and tougher than catgut.

The Modern Idea.

Immensity of Siberia.

Siberia contains one-ninth of all the land on the globe. Great Britain and all Europe, except Russia, together with the whole of the United States, could be put into Siberia.

Words.

A well educated person who has been at high school and a university uses from 3,000 to 4,000 words, but the average individual can get along with 1,000. Shakespeare made use of 15,000, and in Milton's works 8,000 are used. By actual count the Hebrew Testament says all that it has to say with 5,642 words.—Popular Magazine.

Accepted.

"You're a mighty poor talker, especially to the girls. How did you raise the nerve to propose to Miss Sweet?" "Oh, I didn't say much of anything to her. I handed her a solitaire ring and she slipped it on her left forefinger and said: 'All right; it fits!'"

Various Parts of Life.

Life, no doubt, is paved with enjoyments, but we must all expect times of anxiety, of suffering and of sorrow; and when these come it is an inestimable comfort to have some deep interest which will, at any rate to some extent enable us to escape from ourselves.—Sir John Lubbock.

Money in Kangaroo Raising.

Names, Please.

There is nothing lovelier and sweeter than an old lady willing to admit her years, and nothing more ridiculous and pathetic than one who entertains the delusion that clothes and puffs and powder can shoo the years away.—Toledo Blade.

For China Stand.

When one has a china umbrella stand it is a wise plan to place a sponge in the bottom of the jar to keep it from being cracked or broken. The sponge not only prevents it from being broken, but also absorbs the water which drips from the umbrella.

The Pinch.

"Yes, I don't so much mind 'im givin' me the sack. That's all right. But 'e was a dirty outsider to send a letter to the paper advertisin' for a boy—a boy, mark you—to take my place!"—London Opinion.

Foolish Clerk.

No Happiness in Idleness.

Idleness is one of the greatest enemies of character. As some one has said, "The devil tempts other men, but idle men tempt the devil." Do not envy the idle man, whomever you may envy. You may have too much to do, and too many things to think about; still, do not envy the man who has not enough to think about, and has to fall back upon himself. The passions of human nature break loose in idle men, and wander over forbidden places seeking what they can devour.—Dr. James Stalker.

The Change.

"It used to be," declared old Brother Bombershay, "dat when Brudder Mauley and his wife was uh-squabblin' dey had it up and down like a see-saw, sometimes one of 'em gittin' de best of it and den de yudder. But now, bless goodness, dey dess goes 'round and 'round like a merry-go-round, and nobody kin prognosticate which is ahead."—Puck.

Relations.

"What is your opinion of our foreign relations?" asked the patriotic citizen. "They don't do you any good," replied the local politician. "What you want is a lot of relations right here in your own country that'll vote the way you tell 'em to."

When a Lie Is Not a Lie.

When the hired girl says her mistress is not at home, while said mistress is upstairs with a novel; when your lady friend says she is not a bit hungry and forthwith consumes $6 worth of food and drink; when you say to a panhandling friend, "Sorry, old top, but I haven't a cent about me," and there is a large, yellow $20 bill in your vest pocket. These are not lies; they are efforts to spare people's feelings; they are triumphs of altruism over the brutality of conscience.—Exchange.

What He Did.

"After earning a certain amount," propounded Mr. Birchrod, the teacher, "I spent two-thirds of it and lost five-sixths of the balance, winding up with $3. What did I have?" "About eight drinks, I judge," answered the boy at the foot of the class.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Neatly Headed Off.

"Do you not propose to marry?" asked Miss Flitters of young Mr. Bainbridge. "Well, I haven't proposed yet," replied he, in a tone which forbade a further prosecution of inquiries.—Puck.

Obstacles Everywhere.

Life is like walking along a crowded street; there always seem to be fewer obstacles to getting along on the opposite pavement; and yet if one crosses over matters are rarely mended.—Thomas Huxley.

"KATE WATERS OF THE SECRET SERVICE."

Kate Waters, of the United States Secret Service, makes a surprising solution of a murder mystery at an arm post. Incidentally, she forces justice where it belongs and gets herself mixed up in a pretty romance. Two other pictures of exceptionally good subject will be shown also.

Venice—the City of the Sea—famous the world over for its poetic and haunting beauty, constitutes one of the big features to be presented by Lyman H. Howe at the Paris Grand Opera House on Thursday, October 1, 1914. Throned on her hundred isles, it resembles no other city on earth, not merely because of the perpetual pageant of graceful gondolas gliding through its liquid avenues, but there is something so distinctive in its architecture that must be seen to be appreciated. Here are architectural jewels unsurpassed anywhere else even in Italy. At every turn there is a blending of the poetical and picturesque. The transcendent beauty of the city is rivalled only by the glory of its history—romantic and tragic. After viewing Venice by daylight, the scenes change to the hour of sunset, when the sun, like a cunning necromancer robes the city in beauty that is imperial and dazzling. Finally they change again to Venice by moonlight. The color transformations from the golden glow of sunset to the enchanting emerald of moonlight in this paradise of pleasure may well thrill heart and mind. The glide along these curving promenades of rippling water lined with palaces, massive columns, marble balconies and sculptured arches all under the spell of opalescent twilight, then under the shimmering rays of moonlight, is to see the Bride of the Sea as a Queen of the Night robed in all her regal splendor. The softness and brilliance of it all is overpowering. As the shadows of twilight fall and the hush of night steals over the scene, the cares of life seem to vanish in the west with the God of Day. In the refulgent light the city seems like a beautiful mirage, enthroned between two seas—the ocean and the sky—now golden at sunset, then silvery by moonlight. And with the vista of the stately palaces and St. Marks in the distance paneled by the mystic light, and gondolas silently floating past in the foreground like barges of gold and silver, the wizardry of the picture becomes complete—a triumphant symphony of earth, sea and architecture, crystallized in stone and glorified by the setting sun until veiled by matchless and magical moon light.

His One Rival.

"One or the other of us," muttered the young man who awaited his beloved in the front parlor, "is going to be turned down tonight!" And he glanced ferociously at the solitary parlor lamp glowing near the piano.

Never Tried It.

"Oh, Mildred," cried one young lady, meeting a school friend of some two summers past, "I've heard the greatest piece of news. Can you keep a secret?" "I don't know," said the friend. "I never tried it. What is it?"

Hard for a Man to Believe.

Paint Cleaning.

The best way to clean white paint is to take a soft flannel cloth, dip it in warm water, wring out, and then dip it in a saucer of clean bran. The friction of the bran will remove any stain without injuring the paint.

Treatment of Cuts.

A finger cut with a clean knife needs only to be washed with soap and water before dressing. A wound made with an unclean instrument ought to have a cleansing that will be destructive to germs.

Had Some Results.

"What do you think of her voice since it has been trained?" "Well," smiled Brown, "I can't say that it is any better than it was, but there is certainly a whole lot more of it."—Rehoboth Sunday Herald.

To Save an Egg.

When eggs are broken and cannot be used at once, they will keep much better if the shells are removed and a quarter of a teaspoonful of salt is beaten in for each egg.

Had to "Match" the Lamp.

A sudden storm being imminent the mother of a bright little maid found it necessary to light the lamp. "Just think, papa," the child reported at evening. "It was so dark today that mamma had to match the lamp."
